Seven Seeds

On Tuesday night children from St Mary's took part in an amazing concert at the Royal Albert Hall. It was called 'Seven Seeds', a new composition based on the Greek myth of Persephone. The Year 5 children from our school choir joined other schools from the Tri-borough as the 'Overworld Chorus'. John and Reza, who are members of the Young Singers, sang in the 'Overworld Semi-chorus'. We were joined by other choirs, including the Bach choir, and an orchestra. The Music was sublime and we were so honoured to be a part of it. A film of the event will soon be available and we will post it on our website so you can all enjoy the performance! Here are the Year 5 singers with Mr Moss, outside the Royal Albert Hall:

In recognition of the school's commitment to Music, we have been awarded the Music mark. We have plans for even more Music at St Mary's from September, so watch this space!

Bikes and scooters

A friendly reminder not to ride these on school premises for safety. This includes the school car park, as vehicles come in and out regularly. Thank you.

Cricket Art Competition

Huge congratulations to Mia (Y6) and Romodan (Y5) who won the Lord's Ashes art competition! We look forward to seeing your artwork and showcasing it on our website.

Class teachers for September

At the end of the Year, we will sadly be saying goodbye to Mr Moss and Miss Winter. Mr Moss is moving to a school in Clapham, and Miss Winter will be studying for a Masters degree.

We will be welcoming 3 new teachers to St Mary's: Peter Davies, who is moving to London from Hertfordshire, Beth Roberts, who is moving from Wales and Jadwiga Stepinska who has worked in other schools in London. They are all visiting us over the next couple of weeks (Mr Davies came and met his class this week) and I know you will want to make them all very welcome as they join our community. In September, the teachers will be:

Class	Teacher
Year 6	Miss Granite
Year 5	Mr Davies
Year 4	Mr Angell
Year 3	Miss Roberts
Year 2	Miss Bell
Year 1	Miss Philpot
F2	Mrs Williams
F1	Mrs Stepinska
Y5/6 support	Mrs Rickett
