Y3 Trip to the Wallace Collection

Yesterday, Year 3 visited the Wallace Collection to investigate patterns. They observed patterns in art-work and furniture, and created their own prints to create repeated, symmetrical and rotational patterns.

See the flyer in the School Office for details .

Coffee Morning

Wednesday 26th April. A therapist from Westminster Talking Therapies will come to present our next workshop: 'Boost your Mood'. We need a good number of parents for this to happen. Please sign up in the School Office.

Value of the term: Honesty

This term our value is honesty and we are learning about how to do and say what is right.

This week we thought about how what we watch and listen to, and who we spend time with, influences the way we behave and speak.

Please take the time to talk to your children about the importance of being honest, and discuss with them the sorts of things they are watching, reading or playing.

Next week, we will be talking about this quote and why telling the truth is always the right thing to do.

Wishing you all a wonderful weekend.
