Remembrance

Today, the children stopped for a minute's silence to remember people who have fought and died in wars to keep others safe. Children from Year 6 provided readings and prayers: 'we will remember them...'

Dojo Point News:

This week, all the class Dojo point winners had hot chocolate with Miss Norman for the first time. We had a lovely time chatting about school and our interests in the school library.

This week's prize winner is:
Lauren (Y1)

Staffing News

Some of you may know that Ms Bowden is retiring at Christmas. We are so grateful to her for all she has contributed to our school over the years and will want to thank her at Christmas. We are very pleased that Mrs Sprackling will be our new SENCo in January.

Anti-bullying & Well-being Week

Next week, we will be holding anti-bullying week in school and thinking about how we can stand up against bullying. Please be aware that this includes all forms of bullying—verbal, written and online. Please make sure that as parents you know exactly what your child is accessing online, and what they are doing/saying to others outside of school. Mrs Leith can provide support with this and there is a coffee morning to discuss issues around bullying on 30th November. We take any bullying very seriously. You can also contact:

All best wishes, Emily Norman, Headteacher
