

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Friday 23rd November 2017

Year 5 Visit to the Imperial War Museum

On Monday, Year 5 visited the Imperial War Museum in Lambeth to learn more about what happened in WW2. 'We were following the story of the Allpress family, who survived the war. We learnt about rationing, and how little food people were allowed. It was really exciting, and unbelievable, because of all the differences compared to now.' Ayida Y5

Year 3&4 Visit to the Science Museum

On Monday, Years 3 and 4 visited the Science Museum to see 'A Beautiful Planet'. As well as seeing some amazing images in 3D, a very important message was reinforced: we need to look after our environment and planet earth!

Dojo Point News:

Hot chocolate winners:

Term Dates 2018-19

These are attached. Please study them before booking your holidays!

Archdeacon Visit

On Monday, we were also delighted to welcome Archdeacon Luke Miller to our school. He works with the Bishop of London, and oversees the church schools in the Diocese of London. He talked to us in our assembly, where we continued our theme of 'Kings and Queens: what makes a great leader?' and he prayed for our school. Thank you for coming Fr Luke!

Parental Concerns

Thank you so much to all the parents who continue to support us in providing a friendly, welcoming and peaceful school environment. Hopefully, you have now had our updated Parental Concerns procedure. If you are not sure how to raise a concern, please check in the school office and they will direct you to the right person. Just a reminder, these are our core school values, which the whole school community chose together:

Coffee Mornings & Parenting Info

Thursday 30th November: Saying NO! to Bullying
NEW

Anna Freud is running a new, free parenting group from January, 'Helping to Understand your Child's Behaviour'. Please see Mrs Leith for more details.

I wish you all a very peaceful weekend.

Take care

Emily Norman, Headteacher