

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Friday 5th April 2019

This week, we have been...

Bidding Ms Ascough a fond farewell. We said goodbye to her yesterday and all the children contributed to a beautiful card which they presented to her in assembly. Ms Ascough gave each class a book she had chosen just for them - ask your child which book their class received and why she chose it for them! We are going to miss her very much.

We're excited about working with Mr Guttridge next term. I hope you had a chance to meet him last week. He really appreciated the warm welcome he was given and is looking forward to getting to know everyone when he starts after Easter.
