

St Mary's School will:

- encourage a lifelong love of learning
- have very high expectations of your child's work and behaviour
- provide your child with a wide and balanced range of opportunities for learning
- set work which is matched to your child's needs
- set home learning regularly
- treat your child fairly whatever their race, gender, culture, language, economic background, class, religious background, ability or special need/disability
- keep you informed about your child's education by:
  - arranging two formal parents' evenings
  - providing an end of academic year report
  - sending home information about what your child will be learning
- let you know if anything happens in school which you need to know about
- help your child understand his/her responsibilities to other people and to society
- let you know about what is happening in school through regular updates and newsletter or the school website
- celebrate the diversity of our school community and city, we refuse to accept any form of racism, sexism, homophobia or offensiveness towards people of other faiths or world views
- encourage you to feel part of the school and do our best to make you and your family feel welcome

As a parent, you will:

- support the school's vision and values in order to support your child's learning
- adhere to the school's expectations related to equality of opportunity for all persons
- work with the school to ensure your child has the very best learning behaviours, including the work they produce
- keep the school informed of any changes which may affect your child's ability to perform to their very best
- support my child's life in practical ways, for example by:
- helping with homework when I can and making sure it gets to school on time
- meeting with teachers when necessary to discuss progress and anything else that may arise during the year
- make sure my child attends school as much as possible and arrives on time
- ensure my child wears the correct school uniform and with pride
- avoids any disruption to my child's schooling

Pupils also have responsibilities and they are expected to:

- respect and value one another, treating others as they would like to be treated
- take care of our school community and equipment
- come to school ready to learn and display positive learning behaviours
- wear the correct school uniform
- complete homework on time
- speak to a member of staff if they are concerned or worried about anything which makes them anxious or upset
